

As it is, we already have too much media consolidation, and someone has proposed that we allow even more? Big mistake. The airwaves belong to the people, not the media magnates or the politicians. On June 2nd the people want you to protect diversity of opinion and freedom of speech. Reject relaxing the FCC rules.